Class Connection- Make a Difference for Mercy Students

Dear 1960s Classmate,

You are an important part of the Mercy Legacy. Alumnae from the 1960s decade continue to be connected and support the mission of Mercy High School. Never before in our modern history has there been more of a need for connection - reaching out to classmates, family, friends, and those who are close to us.

For the past year and a half, most of us have felt detached and miss our usual social activities. The need for honest-to-goodness human connection is stronger than ever. In the spirit of reconnecting and working together, Mercy is inviting alumnae from the 1960s, to join together for one goal - creating a new legacy:

Our Lady of Mercy Legacy Endowment

This endowment will provide lasting, critical funds to assure that Mercy is affordable to all and that the mission carries on for future generations of young women. Catherine McAuley, who founded the Sisters of Mercy, stated clearly, "No work can be of more good to society than the careful education of young women." We know this to be true from our own lives.

Your contribution, combined with donations from many alumnae, will leave a legacy. Join your OLM classmates and donate to be part of the inaugural group of donors to the Our Lady of Mercy Endowment. Connect with us, your classmates, and the Mercy mission.

Join us in Mercy,

- Mary Ellen Howard, RSM '60
- Patricia Sullivan Mooney Davio '61
- Mary Johnston Barry '62, Karen Crittenden Maher '62
- Betty Jean Hebel, Ph.D. '63, Nadine Frazier Maynard '63
- Carol Ann Camilletti Bernardo '64, Diane Manica '64, Maureen Mulcrone, RSM '64
- Sue Gatchell Brownfield '65
- Cheryl Delaney Kreger '66, Valerie Hebel McNeece '66, Diane Weiss Taylor '66
- Carolyn Behringer Witte '67
- Anne Wynsberge Nemes '68, Lillian Roumayah Shallal '68
- Marla Huber Smith '69, Tess Schafer Sullivan '69
