

Investment 101 Summer Camp 2024

The Charlton Center for Responsible Investing is pleased to announce the launch of Investment 101 Summer Camp 2024.

This five-day Camp will feature academic instruction and hands-on training to provide a basic introduction to the world of investing for beginners. Sessions will run daily from 9 AM to 2 PM. Lunch will be provided in the Titan Dining Room.

Participating junior and senior high school students meeting the application requirements and recommendation of their Counselors will have daily interactions with industry professionals. This will include a general overview of various types of investments, variables impacting investment decisions, risk/reward considerations, diversification, equity valuation, the stock market, and trading. They will also learn about various careers in the investment industry from a panel of professionals who will share their career paths and industry insights.

Campers will also engage in various group and individual activities, including a daily review discussion and an investment contest in our Financial Markets Lab. On Day 1, the campers will select five stocks to include in an investment portfolio. The securities will be monitored and priced every day. On Day 5, each student will present an oral three-minute summary of his/her investments and the rationale for purchasing the securities. The student whose portfolio achieves the highest percent price increase over the five days will receive a cash prizes.

The dates for the Investment Camp Summer 2024 will be announced shortly, as well as details of the application process. For more information, please email the Center's Director, Dawna Edwards-Rodgers, at edwarddj1@udmercy.edu.
