

Mercy lauds 70 years of educating women

Mercy High School celebrates 70 years of educating women with a weekend full of events starting Sept. 25.

FILE PHOTO

Officials at Mercy High School are getting ready for a weekend full of events that will celebrate the school's 70th anniversary.

Mercy High School, an all-girls, Catholic high school in Farmington Hills, will host various events to commemorate and "celebrate 70 years of educating women who make a difference," school officials said. More than 450 people will be on hand, including alumnae, former administrators and staff, board of trustees, school president, principal, the Sisters of Mercy and various supporters.

A variety of events are planned, including:

» A bonfire for students, family and alumnae, taking place 8-10 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 24, at the softball fields.

» An invitation-only President's Reception and new history display blessing, 7-9 p.m. Friday, Sept. 25.

» An open house and luncheon from noon to 3:30 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 26. Members of the Mercy community will reconnect with fellow classmates, staff, Sisters of Mercy, and Mercy friends over lunch. The event will include tours, history display unveiling, a photo booth, spirit wear, individual class reunions and more. Cost is $30 advance; RSVP required at mhsmi.org/70thanniversary.

» A Mass of Thanksgiving at 10 a.m. Sunday, Sept. 27. Advance RSVP required at mhsmi.org/70thanniversary.

» The Make a Difference for Mercy Golf Outing 9 a.m. Monday, Sept. 28, at Western Golf and Country Club. Register at mhsmi.org/advancement/golf-outing/2015.

Mercy High School is located at 29300 W. 11 Mile. Visit mhsmi.org.