Mercy Meet and Greet

STORY AND GRAPHICS: FATIMA SIDDIQUE

This month's Mercy Meet & Greet introduces you to our very own team of Newsprint editors on their last issue ever. Seniors Grace O'Dea, Caitlyn Begosa and Fatima Siddique give us the inside scoop on their position in Newsprint and their favorite part of being on the team as they give their final goodbye.

“My position on Newsprint was Associate Editor-in-chief. My favorite part was working with every staff member to help create each edition of Newsprint. I loved working with everyone on the writing and design elements of the newspaper. It was amazing each month to see every member's creativity, skill and hard work come to real life.”

-Caitlyn Begosa

“My position on Newsprint this past year has been Design Editor and I couldn't be more appreciative of the people I got to work with and the things we've created. Nothing is more gratifying than putting in the hard work and seeing the finished product in everyone's hands. I'm so thankful for the opportunity I've had to create these issues for all of Mercy to enjoy.”

-Fatima Siddique

“I spent the last year as Editor-in-chief of Newsprint and I am so grateful to have held this position! The best part was getting to see a month's worth of hard work come to fruition in each new edition. Everyone puts in so much time and effort and it's so gratifying to see how wonderful each paper turns out.”

- Grace O'Dea
