

The Roostertail Prom Dress Code

1. A young lady's hemline should be no shorter than 6" above the knees.
2. Dresses may be backless, as long as they are not cut below the waist line.
3. No midriff-bearing cutouts.
4. Slits cannot go further than 6" above the knee.
5. No plunging neck lines, modest cleavage is OK.
6. Ladies, if you plan to remove your shoes, bring flats.
7. Gentlemen are not to remove, unbutton, or untuck their shirt.
8. Gentlemen must keep their shoes on.

A parent or guardian is only allowed to come to the Roostertail in case of emergency. Parents and guardians must also abide by the Dress Code.

Example: no jeans, shorts, flip-flops, cut offs, halter tops, etc. At no time will families or friends be allowed on the Roostertail property.

Please note that the following rules apply to all the students and school chaperones that attend prom at the Roostertail.

- There are no boats permitted to load or unload at the Roostertail due to the fact we are not a marina.
- The Roostertail requires an official representative of the school to remain on property until all guests have departed.
- There is no loitering, loud music, or speeding permitted in the parking lot.
- Alcoholic beverages or smoking will not be tolerated anywhere on the premises.
- This will be a lock-in prom. In the event of an emergency that requires a student to go to their car, they must be escorted by a school official or school security.