Riding the bus is a PRIVILEGE, not a Right. Students who misbehave on the school bus will be denied the right to ride the bus for a specified period of time, usually ranging from one to ten days. Repeated misconduct or conduct detrimental to the safety of other students may be grounds for permanent suspension of bus privileges.

Students are expected to conduct themselves in a well-behaved manner while riding the school bus. FPS reserves the right to remove any student whose behavior is detrimental to the safety of other students riding the bus. Parents who have concerns about behavior or the safety of students riding the bus should contact the school principal immediately.
